

September 2011: Guidelines for Honorary Doctorate Nominations

An Honorary Doctorate is an honour bestowed by the University and is intended to recognize individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to the academy and/or society and whose accomplishments, leadership, and/or community service are deemed to be extraordinary and thus worthy of honoris causa – “for the sake of the honour”.

Criteria & Conditions of Eligibility

Acadia University seeks to honour individuals whose contributions or accomplishments are exceptional and reflect an appropriate standard of excellence, consistent with the values and the spirit of the University. The criteria to be considered include:

- ☐ Recognition as exceptional scholars or leaders in their field.
- ☐ A demonstrated commitment to Higher Education.
- ☐ Individuals who are known for their humanitarian leadership.
- ☐ A significant contribution to the local region.
- ☐ Exceptional service to the University.

Nominations for an Honorary Doctorate will not normally be considered for an individual who is currently:

- ☐ a member of federal parliament or provincial legislatures
- ☐ a member of the Board of Governors
- ☐ a member of the University faculty and staff

Nominating Procedures

1. A call for nominations for the Honorary Doctorate degree from the President’s Office will occur by October 1st of each year.
2. Any person or group may nominate an individual for the award of an Honorary Doctorate.
3. Nomination materials should include:
 - a. a letter of nomination from the nominator
 - b. a brief statement (one-page maximum) explaining why the candidate is worthy of an Honorary Doctorate from Acadia University
 - c. an up-to-date curriculum vitae of the nominee
4. Nominations are to be received at the President’s Office by November 15th of each year.

Selection Process

1. All nominations will be reviewed by the Awards Committee.
2. The nomination for the Doctor of Divinity honorary degree will be received from the Senate of Acadia Divinity College.
3. A letter acknowledging receipt of the nomination will be sent to all nominators.
4. The Committee may decide to:
 - a. Recommend the nomination to Senate
 - b. Carry the nomination forward for consideration in the following year. No nomination will be carried forward for more than a total of two years.
 - c. Seek additional information from the nominator in which case the nomination may be held over for further consideration.
 - d. Not recommend the nomination in which case no further action is taken.
5. The recommendation to Senate shall include a brief written summary of the nominee’s accomplishments and a statement that attests to his/her worthiness for the honour.

6. The recommendation to Senate shall also include the designated degree (generally Doctor of Civil Law, Doctor of Divinity, Doctor of Humanities, Doctor of Letters, Doctor of Literature, Doctor of Music, and Doctor of Science).

7. Voting at Senate is through a secret ballot indicating approval/disapproval of the Committee's recommendation. A two-thirds majority is needed to approve the nomination.

8. Upon Senate approval, the nominations are filed until the Honorary Doctorate degree is conferred. If an approved degree is not conferred within 3 years of its approval date, the honorary degree is deemed cancelled.

9. The President, in consultation with the Awards Committee, shall determine the ceremony at which an approved degree will be conferred.

10. The President is responsible for approaching each Senate-approved nominee to determine acceptance.

11. No Honorary Doctorates will be conferred in absentia.

12. Confidentiality is an essential dimension of all processes involved in the selection of an Honorary Graduated. At no point in time are the names of other nominees released. The name of the Honorary Doctorate recipients will be held in complete confidence until the University makes the public announcement regarding the Honorary Doctorate recipients.
